Service Summary

Family to do services at later date

Location: - Not available -

Georgia had a life long association with Independent Christian Church Churches of Christ. She was a member of Ashland Christian Church. She served beside her husband in local church ministry for 21 years. She was a faithful servant of Jesus Christ and worked in various roles as Sunday School, Bible School, youth teacher, camp counselor and cook.

Georgia served anywhere she was needed. She knew no strangers and she had a sweet smile and demeanor always ready for all. She was co-owner with her husband of a franchise with Twentieth Century Publications church directories where she was a fine portrait photographer, marketer and sales associate. She worked as a seamstress for TLC Canvas and Kent Sporting Goods. She worked as a housekeeper for Brethren Care Village and retired after 17 years of service.

Most of all Georgia loved God, and her family. She loved to cook, sew, garden and spend time with her church family.

A service of memorial will be held at a later date, a Ashland Christian Church. Gifts may be forwarded to Fickes Funeral Home or to Ashland Christian Church. Dear friends at the Fickes Funeral Home are assisting the family.
